Sermon Series: Pursued | Teacher: Libin Abraham

1.23.2022

Opener

When you think of Moses, do you think first of Charlton Heston or Prince of Egypt?

Read

Exodus 3:1-4:17; Matthew 28:18-20; 2 Corinthians 3:5-6; 1 Corinthians 2:1-5; Romans 10:16-17; 2 Corinthians 12:9-10;

Main Points

1. God assured Moses with Divine Presence, Divine Name, Divine Signs, Divine Help, and Divine Community.
2. God uses us, not in spite of our weaknesses, but because of our weakness.
3. Self-centered reasons begin and end with us.
4. God-centered assurances begin with God and ends with others.
5. In our pursuit of others, God's assurances count us in when our reasons count us out.

Continuing the Conversation

- How have you typically responded when you sense God leading you to something that seems too big or difficult for you?
- Which reason or reasons do you resonate most with that Moses experience: (a) I am not good enough (question of identity), (b) I don't know enough (question of experience), (c) I may fail (fear of failure), (d) I am not capable (question of ability), (e) I am not willing (passing up the opportunity)?
- When have you been convinced of God's ability to do what he invites you into?
- What assurances do you need to be reminded of in your current season of life to step into his pursuit of others through you?
