

Everyday Jesus

Part 4: Disruptive | Speaker: Pete Briscoe

Sermon Questions for 10.23.16

Opener

Would you rather be told that you have something in your teeth or wait to find out on your own?

Would you rather tell the person you're meeting with that they have something in their teeth or wait for them to find out on their own?

Read

Luke 11:37-46; Luke 10:38-42; Luke 18:18-23; Matthew 5:23-24

Engage with God in a Group

- What's the difference between saying something that offends and being offensive?
- How comfortable are you when you feel there is something to say that may not be received well?
- What keeps you from saying something you think a friend or loved one needs to hear?
- How might your relationship with others deepen if you let Jesus be disruptive through you?

Bottom Line

Jesus in us: We say something when we see something if we love someone.
