

It's (Not) Greek to Me

Part 2: Observation 101 | Speaker: Pete Briscoe

Sermon Questions for 7.16.17

Opener

Have you ever searched for something (car keys, glasses, phone) that was right in front of you? How did you feel when you finally found it?

Read

Acts 1:8

Engage with God in a Group

- When was the last time you read a passage in scripture that you know you've read before, but it seems like you've never seen it until now?
- What's the difference between "seeing" and "observing"?
- Four things to look for: Genre, words, grammar, and atmosphere. How could these categories help you in your observations in the Bible?
- How have you experienced the Spirit's work of revelation and transformation in your life through your time reading God's Word?

Bottom Line

First thing for #bibleskills: Move from seeing to observing
