

When God Broke Through

Part 2: Walking in Good Works | Speaker: Zach Lambert

Sermon Questions for 8.20.17

Opener

When was the last time you did something good that you worked really hard at? How did you feel about yourself?

Read

Ephesians 2:1-10

Engage with God in a Group

- What do you think of the phrase: “Pray as if everything depends on God, work as if everything depends on you?” Have you thought something similar?
- In moments when you find yourself working “for” God, how do you feel about yourself? Are you exhausted?
- How is your daily life impacted if you began to realize (believe) that everything depends on God? What does a life of trust look like?

Bottom Line

God has prepared in advance good works for you to walk in as you depend on him.
