- When you think about the major issues in our culture, how would you describe your mindset?
- How often would you describe your way of thinking as biblically sound, theologically accurate, and loving?
- God's big story: Creation-to-Fall-to-Redemption-to-Consummation. How does knowing the over-arching narrative impact how you interact with others today?
- Are your relationships with others, those you're close with and acquaintances and strangers, marked by treating all with dignity, kindness, love, and respect? Why do you think it can be a struggle for us to treat everyone in such a biblical manner?
