*Week 10: Together Under Pressure | Libin Abraham:
Sermon Questions for November 21*

Opener

Under pressure: What is the funniest or strangest thing that has happened when you have felt under pressure?

Read

1 Peter 5:1-5; Mark 10:42-45; Hebrews 13:17; 1 Corinthians 9:25

Christ-like leadership from elders and pastors and Christ-like humility from the church body.

Believers eagerly serve Jesus and people, a sacred call that calls for a self-less heart.

Peter says that God resists the proud but gives grace to the humble.

Humility is not a stream of self-consciousness, but Christ-consciousness.

“If pride is resisting, humility is resting.” —JoAnn Hummel

Engage with God in a Group

- What does leadership look like in the world?
- Biblically, what does leadership look like? Biblically, what does it look like to follow?
- Which one do you struggle with? Why?
- How could we lift you up and encourage each other in our roles as leaders or followers?

Bottom Line

As leaders and followers, our sacred call is to serve Jesus and others with a self-less heart.
