

Ruth

Week 2: Stay in the Story | Teacher: Libin Abraham
Sermon Questions for 3.6.2022

Opener

If you could actually be inside a story that you've read, what story would you want to join?

Read

Ruth 1:8-18; Hebrews 12:1; 1 Peter 4:8-10; Romans 8:28-30

Main Points

1. For Ruth, her decision boiled down to: Yahweh plus nothing in Bethlehem or everything minus Yahweh in Moab.
2. Stay in the story with God.
3. Stay in the story with People.
4. Stay in the story because God always writes a good ending.
5. Through pain, agony, and humiliation, through the grave, death and resurrection, Jesus stayed in the story for you.

Engage with God in a Group

- If your life is a story, what chapter do you think you're in and what title would you give it?
- What is a significant turning point in the story of your life?
- When you think of the main thoughts from this passage, what does it mean for you to "stay in the story with God" and "stay in the story with people"?
- What encouragement do you feel with the truth that God is with you in the story, writing it for you, and leading towards a good ending?

Bottom Line

You can stay in the story because Jesus is the one writing your story and he won't fail you nor will he leave you.
