

Ruth

Week 3: Comfort and Courage | Teacher: Steve Frissell
Sermon Questions for 3.13.2022

Opener

What would you consider your most courageous moment so far?

Read

Ruth 1:16-17; Ruth 2; 2 Corinthians 1:3-5

Main Points

1. In Ruth 2:2, gleaning isn't a glamorized thing. Ruth put herself at risk as one of the lowest members of society at the time - a woman, a widow, barren, an outsider, and poor.
2. Ruth ending up in Boaz's field wasn't chance, it was the invisible hand of God directing her to what he had for her.
3. God uses Ruth's courage to call Boaz to generosity and to comfort Naomi in her pain.

Engage with God in a Group

- When was a time you saw someone act in a courageous way?
- How have you experienced God's comfort in the midst of pain in your life?
- Are you in a season of pain right now? What area(s) are you experiencing pain/suffering/uncertainty?
- How would you describe God's comfort for you today?
- Where is God calling you to generosity?
- Do you feel courage growing within?
- Who might God want to extend comfort to through how he's comforted you?

Bottom Line

When we have been comforted in Christ, he comforts others in the midst our pain.
