Sermon Questions for 4.22.18

Opener

What's a time when you realized that something you believe about yourself was affecting how you behaved?

Read

Colossians 1:2, 22; 2 Corinthians 4:16-18; Hebrews 11:1, 25-27; John 6:35; Heb. 10:14; Col. 1:22, 3:1

Engage with God in a Group

- Where do you begin most days: above the line or below the line?
- Do you think of yourself primarily according to what's true about you above the line or below the line? What changes in your soul when you see yourself as above the line?
- Living above the line brings hope, stability, confidence, and we experience his Life. How often are you experiencing this reality?
- How would your week look differently if you "fixed your eyes" above the line? How will that help you to "not lose heart" (2 Cor. 4:16-18)?

Bottom Line

You are what God says about you, not what you feel about you!
