Sermon Questions for 5.13.18

Opener

What's something you do where you lose track of time?

Read

Engage with God in a Group

- How is it a proper (logical) response to his grace and love to offer yourself wholly to God, including your physical body and all its activities?
- What would it look like in your life to offer yourself — your dreams, plans, friendships, your kids, spouse, career, finances, time — all to God?
- Have you offered all of your life and activity to him, or do you struggle with the idea, “I’ll give you my life if...”?

Bottom Line

When we are aware of God’s love, we are available to love.
