

Glory to the Newborn King

Part 1: When You Need a Breakthrough | Speaker: Amy Cedrone

Sermon Questions for 12.1.19

Opener

What is your favorite Christmas carol?

Read

Luke 2:8-20; Philippians 2:6-11; 2 Corinthians 4:7

Engage with God in a Group

- When was the first time you remember hearing the Christmas story?
- In thinking of how God chose to breakthrough - through the lowly in the world's eyes - how might you be encouraged in your current season of life?
- When have you experienced his breakthrough during a breakdown?
- Read the first verse of Hark the Harold Angels Sing together. When you're struggling or experiencing difficulties, how might God want to show you his peace through this verse?

Bottom Line

Breakdown is a prequel to a breakthrough.

Sing: "Hark the Harold Angels"

Hark! The herald angels sing, "Glory to the new-born King; Peace on earth, and mercy mild; God and sinners reconciled." Joyful, all ye nations rise, join the triumph of the skies; With angelic hosts proclaim, "Christ is born in Bethlehem."
